Pennſylvania GAZETTE.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

FROM FEBRUARY 21. TO FEBRUARY 28. 1737,8.

Province of the Maſſachuſetts-Bay.
Fort Dummer, 1737.

PURSUANT to an Order from His Excellency the Governor to us the Subſcribers directed, appointing us to confer with Ontauſſoogoe and Four other Delegates of the Cagnawaga Tribe of Indians, we came to Fort Dummer aforeſaid, where we arrived on the fifth of October, Anno Domini, 1737.

We acquainted the ſaid Delegates, that His Excellency the Governor having been inform'd that they were come to Fort Dummer, to treat about ſome publick Affairs, he had thereupon ordered and appointed us on Behalf of the Government of the ſaid Province, to confer with them of ſuch Matters as were given them in Charge, and that we ſhould be ready to hear what they had to ſay, when they were prepar'd to ſpeak. The uſual Ceremonies being over, they withdrew.

October, 6. Being met in the Morning, Ontauſſoogoe ſaid to us as follows, viz. Brother, the Broad Way, Two Years paſt I was at Deerfield; the Matter then deliver'd to us by you was, that the old Covenant of Peace and Unity between our Brother the Broad Way and us might be continued.

We now return in Anſwer for our three Tribes, That our Deſire is, that it might remain firm and unſhaken, and do from our Hearts promiſe the Covenant ſhall not be broken on our Part, but if ever there ſhould be any Breach, it ſhall begin on yours. And the God of Heaven who now ſees us, and knows what we are doing, be Witneſs of our Sincerity. ----- Then laid down a Belt of Wampum.

Ontauſſoogoe then ſaid again, We your Brethren of the three Tribes have learn'd by Hear-ſay, that our Brother the Broad Way has loſt his Wife. ------- Such Loſſes ought to be made up. We did not know whether the Governor would be capable of a Treaty under his Affliction, but find that he is, and are thankful for it.----Then gave a Belt of Wampum to quiet the Governor's Mind, and remove his Grief for the Loſs of his Wife; and added, I rowl myſelf in the Duſt for the Loſs of our great Men.

Ontauſſoogoe ſaid again, We do in the Name of our three Tribes ſalute the Governor, and all the Gentlemen belonging to him, tho' at a great Diſtance and Strangers, yet ſomething acquainted. This was their Deſire and our Deſign when we came from Home, thus to ſalute you with this Belt, wiſhing you Happineſs and Proſperity; laid it down and ſaid they had done ſpeaking.

We then ſaid to them, we would take what they had delivered into Conſideration, and return Anſwer thereto in the Afternoon. We then drank King GEORGE's Health to them, they alſo drank King GEORGE's Health and the Governor's to us.

In the Afternoon being met, we ſaid to them, You have in ſtrong Terms aſſured us, that the Covenant of Friendſhip renewed Two Years ago at Deerfield between this Government and the Cagnawaga Tribe, ſhall almays remain firm and unſhaken; and we do in the Name and Behalf of the Government aſſure you, that they will cultivate the Friendſhip they have contracted with your Tribes, and that nothing in our own Hearts, nor the Inſtigation of others, ſhall ever prevail upon us to break our ſolemn

Engagements

Engagements to you; but we ſhall always hold our ſelves under the ſtrongeſt Obligations to a punctual Obſervance of what we have promiſed. We then gave a Belt of Wampum.

You have in your Speech made to us this Day, condoled the Death of the Governor's Lady. Her Death was the Cauſe of much Grief to him. We doubt not but your Sympathizing with him will tend to abate and lighten his Sorrow. We take this Occaſion to expreſs our Concern for the Death of your Friends, and to Comfort your Hearts under your Afflictions. We then gave three black Blankets, inſtead of a Belt.

We kindly accept the Salutation of your People, and eſteem it a Token of their Reſpect and Friendſhip to us. And we do in the Name of the Government, return the like Salutation to your old Men and Young, both to your Councellors and to your Men of War, to all of them we wiſh Proſperity and Happineſs forever.-----Then we gave a Belt of Wampum.

Ontauſſoogoe ſaid, Gentlemen, I return you Thanks; you have rehearſed all that has been ſaid this Day.-----Are glad your Hearts are diſpoſed as we find they are to Friendſhip, and deſire that they always may, and declare that ours ever will; and thank God for it.-----and wiſhes well to all.

We then drank the Governor's Health.

The Speeches being ended, we then in the Name of the Government, gave a Preſent to them of the Value of Seventy Pounds Ten Shillings.

CHARLESTOWN.

The SPEECH of the Honourable WILLIAM BULL, Eſq; Preſident aud Commander in Chief, &c. To the General Aſſembly of this Province met, Decemb. 7. 1737.

Honourable Gentlemen, and Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen:

IT is needleſs for me to take up much of your Time in condoling with you the Loſs which this Province hath ſuſtain'd by the Death of the late Lieutenant Governor, that Gentleman having been ſo well known and intruſted with ſeveral Honourable Poſts before he was Governor of this Province.

I am very ſenſible of the Weight of Government, and how unequal I am to the Diſcharging of a Truſt of ſuch Importance. But while I have the Honour to be in the Adminiſtration, it ſhall always be my Maxim to purſue with Diligence ſuch Meaſures as I ſhall judge moſt expedient for his Majeſty's Service, and the Security and Welfare of this Province, in which I doubt not but I ſhall upon all Occaſions meet with your ready Concurrence and Aſſiſtance.

Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen,

The State and Condition of the Militia and Fortifications require your immediate Conſideration, as Dangers may come unexpected, that ſuch Laws may be paſſed as will render them more ſerviceable in the Defence of the Country; and as other Matters ſhall offer which may concern the publick Benefit, I ſhall not fail from Time to Time to communicate them to you. I recommend the Diſpatch of the neceſſary Proviſions for the current Year, that your Attendance on the publick may give leſs Interruption to your private Affairs.

WILLIAM BULL.

To the Honourable WILLIAM BULL, Eſq; Preſident and Commander in Chief in and over his Majeſty's Province of SOUTH-CAROLINA.

The Humble ADDRESS of the Commons Houſe of Aſſembly.

May it pleaſe your Honour,

'WE His Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects the 'Commons Houſe of Aſſembly of this Province, 'crave leave to return your Honour our unfeigned Thanks 'for your kind Speech to us, on this Occaſion of our Meeting your Honour at the Head of Adminiſtration of Affairs 'amongſt us.

'We are highly ſenſible of the Loſs befallen this Province, by the Death of our late Lieutenant Governour; 'our Concern on which Account would continue the longer 'imprinted upon us, had we not great Reaſon from your Honour's paſt Behaviour to expect a prudent & proſperous Adminiſtration by your Honour's Acceſſion to the Government; '& as we have nothing more at Heart than His Majeſty's Honour and Service in this Province, annexed to the true 'Regard which we always owe to the good People of it, 'with whoſe Intereſts we are inſtruſted, ſo nothing can be 'of greater Satisfaction to us than the Proſpect we have of 'finding both Intereſts the declared Maxims of your Honour's Adminiſtration

'A Conduct formed upon ſuch Principles by a Governor 'preſiding over a free People will undoubtedly make his 'Government eaſy, and will prove an Ability equal to the 'great Charge with which he is intruſted.

'We are fully aſſured, that the State and Condition of 'the Militia and Fortifications require at this Time the 'publick Attention, which, with all other Things that 'concern the Welfare of the Province, ſhall have due 'Conſideration, and particularly thoſe Matters which from 'time to time ſhall be remmended by your Honour.

By Order of the Houſe,
CHARLES PINCKNEY, Speaker.
